TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Wetumpka, Alabama ANNOUNCES THE PUBLICATION OF THE SHALL WE GATHER COOKBOOK

Shall We Gather, Recipes and Remembrances of A River Town, is a cookbook created by The Church Ladies of Trinity Episcopal Church, Wetumpka, Alabama. After nearly two years in the making, the book is now available for purchase and delivery.

Shall We Gather is a collection of more than 200 tested recipes, each carefully selected for taste, originality and ease of preparation with an emphasis on the use of Alabama products. Recipes are written for clarity to provide a confident cooking experience for novice cooks, as well as seasoned culinary experts. Traditional southern family favorites are included with innovative cuisine from some of the South's finest kitchens.

The cover of the glossy, hardcover book features original artwork by award winning artist Hope Brannon of Wetumpka. Prints of the cover art are available in three sizes and may be purchased through Trinity Episcopal Church.

Sponsors of Shall We Gather are: Alabama Poultry and Egg Association, First Community Bank, Jenkins Brick, River Bank and Trust, PrimeSouth Bank, The Wetumpka Herald, Brandt Wright Century 21 Realty, and Jinright Turner Securance Insurance.

Shall We Gather features a foreword by John Berendt, author of Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil and City of Falling Angels. The only other time Berendt has written a cookbook introduction was for Paula Deen's first cookbook.

CONTINUED

Vignettes of life, lore and legend along the Coosa River make Shall We Gather a distinctively Alabama product and create a strong sense of place.

All proceeds from the sale of Shall We Gather will be used to build new worship space for Trinity Episcopal Church. The new construction will take place at Trinity's present location 5375 US Highway 231 in Wetumpka.

The purchase price for single copies of Shall We Gather is $22.95 plus tax or a total of $24.79. Those purchasing a case of 10 books will receive a 10% discount for a total case price of $223.07, including tax. Please add $5 shipping and handling for a single book and $2 for each additional book.

Cookbooks may be purchased using a major credit card via the internet at trinitywetumpka.org/cookbook or by calling 334-567-7534. Checks should be made payable to Trinity Episcopal SWG and mailed to Trinity Episcopal Church, 5375 US Highway 231, Wetumpka, AL 36092.
