A lot of holiday spirit will be in the air. Shoppers will delight in the variety of articles offered for sale. There will be:

- Bake Sale - with cakes, cookies, casseroles, rolls and breads, jams and jellies, even chutneys and pickles.
- a church cookbook called Through the Grapevine
- Made with Love - wonderful gifts made by the women of the church including sock monkey dolls, Christmas ornaments, soft toys for children, knitted and crocheted items, quilts
- A Garden Shop bursting with fresh delights and gift kits galore for decorating mailboxes, mantles, bulb kits and other garden delights
- Episcopal Merchandise make the perfect gift for all your Episcopal friends from dog collars, shirts, flip flops, and carry all bags
- Attic Treasures bring back life those forgotten treasures from parish members' attics and garages
- Exquisite Collectables are a variety of silver, crystal, and fine linens pulled from our very own china cabinets.
- To complete your shopping experience we are offering twenty fabulous Artist Vendors . They will provide a large variety of crosses, jewelry, paintings, ornaments, children's art supplies, embroidery and crocheted items. No two artists produce the same things.

Proceeds from this bazaar will provide funds for more community outreach within our diocese. We will mail out brochures to every church within our diocese. Please come and prepare to do all of your holiday shopping with us.
