

MONTGOMERY CONVOCATION REPORT

September 12, 2006

St. Paul's - Lowndesboro was the site of our fall convocation meeting. Forty-three ladies attended representing 7 churches from the Montgomery area. There were three members of the clergy present: Rev. Joe Knight, St. Paul's; Mark Waldo, Sr., retired; and Mark Waldo, Jr., St. Michael's and All Angels. Two ECW diocesan presidents attended - our own, Alleen Cater, and Karen Jackson from the Central Gulf Coast.

A short business meeting was held. Alleen Cater discussed the ACTS 2 Campaign. The ACTS 2 prayer was distributed and the ECW members were asked to pray daily for the church. Alleen also shared her experiences from attending the ECW Triennial and the National Convention in June.

The highlight of our meeting was our speaker, Sis Levin. She shared a power point presentation of her mission and ministry in Bethlehem, "The Children of Abraham". This ministry promotes the teaching of peacemaking skills to the Christians, Muslim, and Jewish children of Bethlehem, kindergarten age through college.

Rev. Joe Knight celebrated Holy Eucharist which was followed by a delicious lunch prepared by St. Paul's ECW members.

The spring Convocation meeting will be hosted by the ECW of St. John's in Montgomery, April 16, 2007
