

East Alabama Convocation Spring Meeting. The Episcopal Church Women of East Alabama met Saturday, May 31st at St Barnabas Episcopal Church in Roanoke, Alabama. The beautiful spring day was further enhanced by a wonderful luncheon, Holy Eucharist and speaker from Servants in Faith and Technology which is a training ground for people who want to share God's love through service, education and personal involvement with a needy world. To find out more about this wonderful center, look them up at: www.sifat.org. At the brief business meeting, Tana Branch, EA Convocation coordinator thanked the ladies of the 8 area churches for all the hard work and planning that went into the ECW Fall Conference held in Auburn last October. Gethryn Giles, ECW State President Elect, brought good wishes and blessings from Dee Busby, ECW President, who had already left for Kanuga and the Province IV summer meetings. The new parish church, St Barnabas, is a wonderful example of what a group of very dedicated people can build when brought together by faith and devotion to one another and our Lord, Jesus Christ. St Barnabas is indeed a sweet little church that looks as if it has been a part of the community for at least 100 years. Thank you, ladies of St Barnabas and rector, Al Perkins. The day was perfect.
