

Black Belt Convocation
January, 2009 Report

After an exciting and informative Diocesan Fall Convocation, I approached St. Paul's, Selma, in hopes of receiving an invitation to meet there for the fall. They were willing, but the only available date was November 2 (Bama Homecoming). I thanked them profusely and declined the invite.

We are planning a late January meeting at Christ Church to replace the missed Fall meeting and a late Spring (May or early June) meeting somewhere else.

I am in the process of mailing calendars and a questionnaire to the parishes of the Black Belt.

Respectfully submitted,
